FROM:

[REDACTED]
Deputy Director, Public Affairs Office

STAT

SUBJECT:

Invitation to Address the Bay Area Law Enforcement & Security Liaison Group and the San Francisco Chapter of the American Society for Industrial Security

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline the invitation to address the Bay Area Law Enforcement & Security Liaison Group and the San Francisco Chapter of the American Society for Industrial Security at a luncheon meeting in San Francisco sometime in November.

2. Background: [REDACTED] has invited you to address the Bay Area Law Enforcement & Security Liaison Group and the San Francisco Chapter of the American Society for Industrial Security in the San Francisco area in November. There would be an audience of approximately 400. They would prefer that the luncheon take place on a weekday.

STAT

The American Society for Industrial Security (ASIS) has a membership of 18,000 and is organized into regional and local groups. It is made up of officials in private industry responsible for the loss prevention, security functions as well as government security officers. You addressed the ASIS National Convention at Atlanta in September 1982. Attached is additional information.

[REDACTED] identified the Bay Area Law Enforcement and Security Liaison Group as an informal association of the FBI, Customs, Coast Guard, local police authorities, and sometimes the military. This group is particularly active in the Silicon Valley.
